

Summary

VALUES	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The rights of the child • The family is the best environment for child development • Investing in children, in their development and welfare supports reaching their full potential, their independence and brings wellbeing to the whole nation • Working together • Child participation • Non-discrimination
VISION	The National Network for Children works towards a society where every child has their own family and enjoys the best opportunities for life and development. There is a harmony between the sectoral policies for the child and the family and the child rights and welfare are guaranteed.
MISSION	The National Network for Children brings together and develops a wide, socially significant network of organisations and supporters, which advocates for rights and welfare of the child.
Priorities	Placing the child and family in the centre of the political and public life		Child and youth participation	Development of the Network
Objectives	Development of policies for children and families	Changing the attitudes of the society to the rights of the child	Development of a model for child participation	Development of the Network	Improving the capacity	Promoting the public image of the NNC
Measures	Advocacy for family support Advocacy for an independent authority for the child Monitoring of policies - Report Card of the Government Monitoring of the deinstitutionalisation process Advocacy in education Advocacy for reform in the child healthcare Advocacy in the child and juvenile justice	Campaign for positive parenting Defending the rights of the child in the public environment Implementing a Campaign “Community school – a school for everyone” Campaign “Big or small is the need to change the school toilets?” Children in the media	Development of a community of children and young people Development of the capacity of the NNC member organisations for accepting and implementing child participation as main principle in their work Promotion of child and youth participation for changes in all areas of child welfare	Expanding the membership and the scope of work of the NNC Improving the efficiency of the NNC operation Development of the Network at regional level. improving the environment for civil participation in the decision making	Improving the capacity of the NNC member organisations Development of the capacity of the Network as a community Promoting the partnership at local level Development of financial strategy and plan for the sustainability of the Network	Promoting the work of the Network and its individual members

